Rotary Vision:

Together, we see a world where people unite and take action to create lasting change across the globe, in our communities, and in ourselves.

Our meeting began with President Jeff Balzer leading in the Pledge of Allegiance and God Bless America. Cindy Strayer did the invocation.

Sergeant at Arms Report:

Mark Barnhart reported 27 of our 58 members were in attendance and 1 guests.

Announcements:

Steve Edson announced that census jobs are still available starting in March. Contact Steve Edson for details. Brian Beeghly announced that as the program chair he wants each table to come up with a program where you explain what is going on in your life. For example; knee replacement. Rod Booker announced that scholarships are still available.

Our club also agreed to give $650 of happy bucks to a housekeeper that works at the Ramada whose house and belongings were completely lost in a fire. She also has 7 children and they lost everything.

Word of the week with Steve Edson: Crapulous 1. Sickness caused by excessive eating or drinking.
2. Excessive indulgence; intemperance.

Speaker:

Cesare Muccari spoke about the Azores, which is an island located off the coast of Portugal. The Azores are considered autonomous but are still part of Portugal. The weather is pleasant, mostly mid 70's and is 950 miles off the coast of Portugal. There are 9 islands all together. The primary economy there is fueled by tourism, agriculture and fishing. There are cows everywhere on the islands and the entire population of the 9 islands is around 244,000. Cesare spoke of his trip there and highly recommends visiting there for those that like to travel to nice places.

Our meeting ended in the usual way with the Four Way Test.

The Great Dictator
