

Rotary Club of Greensburg, PA

Club 5228 District 7305

Service Above Self

February 18, 2020

Rotary Vision:

Together, we see a world where people unite and take action to create lasting change across the globe, in our communities, and in ourselves.

Our meeting began with President Jeff Balzer leading in the Pledge of Allegiance and God Bless America. Brian Beeghly did the invocation.

Sergeant at Arms Report:

Mark Barnhart reported 25 of our 57 members were in attendance and 2 guests.

Announcements:

Stephen Edson talked about scams coming to people where they pose as the census bureau and ask for your SS#. Don't ever give your SS# to anyone that says they are from the census bureau.

Quote of the week with Jeff Balzer:

“Coming together is the beginning. Keeping together is progress. Working together is success.” ~ Henry Ford

Speaker: Jeff Raykes “Greensburg City Planner” spoke at our Rotary luncheon today. Jeff is responsible for the programs of planning, community development and community redevelopment. Additional responsibilities include providing leadership and guidance over strategic planning, long range planning, zoning and development, and formulating policy for the City. Jeff has 13 years experience in regional planning while being the Deputy Director of the Indiana County Office of Planning and Development. He also has been an adjunct professor at Indiana University of Pennsylvania for 6 years in the Department of Geography and Regional Planning under the newly accredited Planning Program. He received his Doctor of Education in Administration and Leadership as well as his Masters of Science in Geography & Regional Planning from Indiana University of Pennsylvania and his Bachelors of Science in Communication from Frostburg State University.

Our meeting ended in the usual way with the Four Way Test.

The Rotary Club of Greensburg meets every Tuesday at the Ramada Inn. Meetings commence at noon and finish by 1:00.
