

THE FLASH

April 1, 2025

President Bill Pfeifer called the meeting to order & led us in the Pledge of Allegiance

Rod Booker – God Bless America

Al Lazar - Invocation

Mark Barnhart – Attendance was 28 members

Happy Bucks- Rod Booker ($40 was collected)

TODAY'S PROGRAM:

Sierra Aires, Greensburg Salem Interact Advisor and two students:
Kagan McBreen and Jonah Switalski

Both Kagan and Jonah spoke about attending the World Affairs Council in Pittsburgh. The overall theme of the event spoke to finding ways for Pittsburgh to become a more global city. They want to foster international trade and help generate globally minded citizens.

Jonah, who received a Rotary scholarship to attend, gave 5 make takeaways from the event. They are: Global politics and diplomacy; Human rights and justice; Leadership and diplomacy skills; Cultural understanding and globalization and Global health and challenges.

CLUB ANNOUNCEMENTS:

April 6 is the Rotary Foundation Luncheon. It will be held at the LeMonte Restaurant on Mt Washington. The registration and cash bar runs from 11:30 – 12:30, with the sit down meal starting at 12:30.

April 10 is the Shark Tank event at Seton Hill 4 pm, see Michael Dubosky for info.

Amy Hood – Comfort Care – they are still collecting pill bottles.
Please speak with Amy for further details.

