TODAY'S PROGRAM:

Fellow Greensburg Rotarian, Michael Dubosky from MVD Woodcraft was our speaker today. He started his woodworking business about three years ago. He spoke about the different types of domestic and exotic woods that he uses in his craft. He uses dozens of templates for his cutting boards, including his holiday versions. He also utilizes silicon molds. He has showcased his work at several markets including Greensburg and Ligonier. He hopes to branch out into the Pittsburgh area markets as well.

Most of his items can take a few days to a couple of weeks to complete. His cutting boards are food safe and water resistant. Michael also creates customized crosses, memorial plaques, pens, bowls, shamrocks and charcuterie boards. Thank you, Michael for sharing your craft with us today.

CLUB ANNOUNCEMENTS:

We will not have our weekly meeting on both December 23rd and 30th due to the holidays.

For those that will be participating in the Greensburg holiday parade, we are #11 in the line up, which starts at 3pm. For those who would like a ride up to Main Street, we are meeting in Barnhart's parking lot at 2:30. The parade begins at 5pm.

Our holiday party will be at Giannilli's II on January 13 at 6pm.

If donating to the Paul Harris fund during November, your amount can be considered as tripled. If donating to the polio fund, it will be considered doubled.

We are also accepting donations for Flag Pole and the Bob Bloom memorial that will be stationed at the new Hempfield Park.

Congratulations to the newest three members of our Rotary board. Dr. Rod Booker, Debby King and Al Lazar.

Debby King would like to start a Spelling Bee Committee. If interested, please let her know.
