Rod Booker – God Bless America

Invocation – Marcus Ragland

Sgt. At Arms – Mark Barnhart reported that we had 30 members in attendance and one guest: Lita Brillman who was hosted by Amy Hood.

TODAY'S PROGRAM:

Our first autobiography was from Katie Maholic. She grew up in the Penn Trafford area. She comes from a very large Catholic family. Both of her parents are one of ten children. She attended Clarion University and graduated in 2013 with a mass media and journalism degree. After college she worked for a safety management company for 6 years. During that time, she moved into a recruiting role and eventually left after being in a marketing position. She then moved onto retail positions at GNC and Victoria Secret. She has spent 32 years as a dancer and currently dances for Latshaw Productions. She has held her current position with Fotorecord for the last year.

Our second autobiography was from Kevin Stobel. Kevin is the son of a long time Rotary member, Chuck Strobel. Kevin has been born and raised in the Greensburg area. He went to Latrobe High School. He was a boy scout and very into cars. He attended Triangle Tech in 2002 and received his associates degree. He was employed by a nationwide traveling electrical company which sent him all over the US. He moved to Phoenix, AZ for 1 ½ years but missed Pennsylvania's weather and decided to come home. He was employed by UPS where he utilized his CDL license. He now manages his father's office buildings. He resides in Unity Township.
