TODAY’S PROGRAM:

Laura Poskin the Executive Director for Age-Friendly Services was our speaker today.

Their goal is to make communities inclusive and respectful for all ages. They have been a part of the WHO/AARP network since 2015. PA has been declared an “age-friendly” state by Governor Shapiro. She stated that our country’s population is 26% over the age or 65. And that our region is 2nd oldest in the country, next to Palm Beach, Florida. They offer communications support where they have a photo bank that is free to download. They also offer team building opportunities where they have workshops that train employers to value and empower a multigenerational workforce.
