TODAY'S PROGRAM:

Juliette Smith, the CEO of the Westmoreland Cultural Trust was our speaker today. She joined the trust in 2025. She explained that the Trust was started in 1969 when Katherine McKenna donated the civic center to the city of Greensburg. In 1990 the Palace Theatre was sold to the trust. On September 2, the Palace celebrated it's 100th birthday. LeAnn Rimes came to perform for this special occasion. Juliette also stated that the Palace has been bringing back movies to the theatre. The next showing will be the movie "The Ghostbusters" on October 31. Adult tickets are only $10.

Please visit www.WestmorelandCulturalTrust.org for more details for all of their upcoming events.
